The Property

Bekynton House is a distinguished 17th-century home, occupying an enviable position on the village green in one of South Oxfordshire's most desirable locations. Steeped in history, the property showcases architectural elements from the 18th century, including its striking stone façade, while a late Victorian northern wing adds further character. Offering 3,650 sq. ft. of versatile living space across three floors, this exceptional home combines period charm with modern functionality, making it an ideal choice for discerning buyers.

The interior retains many original features, including exposed beams and a brick inglenook fireplace, evoking a sense of warmth and history. Thoughtfully arranged living spaces provide flexibility, whether for family life, entertaining, or remote working. The property is surrounded by approximately 0.25 acres of private walled gardens, offering a peaceful retreat with mature planting and outdoor seating areas.

Bekynton House enjoys an open aspect to the front, overlooking the green, mature trees, the village church, and local pubs, enhancing its idyllic setting. The property benefits from excellent transport connections, providing easy access to London and major business hubs.

A rare opportunity to acquire a home of such historical significance in a prime village setting, Bekynton House is ready for its next chapter.
