The Property

Rose Lodge is an impressive family home set in the tranquil village of Sutton Courtenay. Dating back around 90 years, this elegant property features distinctive window styles and angled interiors that give it unique character.

A spacious entrance hall leads to a study, large sitting room, and fully equipped kitchen with utility room—designed for comfort and functionality. The sitting room flows into the dining room, ideal for family life and entertaining. A former tandem garage has been converted into an exercise room and wine cellar, adding versatile lower-level space.

Upstairs, there are five generous bedrooms, including a master suite with en-suite and dressing room. Two family bathrooms serve the remaining rooms, and a converted loft offers flexible space for hobbies or as a teenager's retreat.

Set within 0.75 acres of landscaped gardens, Rose Lodge also features an in-and-out driveway and double garage, offering ample parking and practicality.
