The Location

West St. Helen Street is one of Abingdon's most charming and historic central locations, situated just moments from the River Thames and the picturesque St. Helen's Church. This sought-after area offers immediate access to the town's wide range of shops, cafés, restaurants, and weekly markets, all set within a vibrant community atmosphere. Riverside walks and green spaces such as the Abbey Gardens and Meadows are within easy reach, providing peaceful retreats in the heart of town. Excellent bus links connect Abingdon to Oxford and Didcot, while nearby rail stations offer fast routes to London and beyond, making it a convenient location for both work and leisure.
