2 Chapel Lane

Gaddesby, Leicester, LE7 4WB

Situated in this sought after Wreake Valley village, a charming period cottage built of brick elevations beneath a Swithland slate roof. With gas central heating this delightful cottage offers spacious accommodation with many period features including beams and feature Inglenook fireplace. In brief it offers a large breakfast kitchen with oak units and granite work surfaces, Aga and walk in pantry. The dining room has stairs to the first floor and also provides access to the sitting room with Inglenook fireplace and multi fuel stove. To the first floor there are three spacious bedrooms and a large four piece bathroom with cast iron roll edged bath. A walled cottage garden to the front offers potential for off road parking subject to the usual consents, and provides a delightful outlook over adjacent countryside.

Gaddesby is a particularly unspoilt, leafy village with many attractive cottages and houses, a renowned local primary school, popular public house and village Church. A conservation village, Gaddesby is situated between Leicester and Melton Mowbray, on the edge of the Wreake Valley, and is well known for its popularity in terms of convenience for ease of access to the afore-mentioned, as well as Nottingham, the market towns of Oakham, Uppingham and Loughborough and the adjoining Charnwood Forest with its many scenic countryside walks.
