Four-bedroom semi-detached home located in a very convenient location with Sidcup High Street and mainline station both within an easy commute. Our seller has recently converted the loft space into two fantastic double bedrooms. This property has a driveway for two cars which is hard to come by with a Victorian property and being so close to the station. Additionally, there are two modern bathrooms so no risk of family squabbles and a 92ft rear garden ideal for entertaining or kids to play in.
