£500,000

An extended three-bedroom semi-detached bungalow with a south east facing garden. Offered with the added convenience of no forward chain, local shops just a few minutes away and bus/train links within walking distance. This home has the potential to add your own personality throughout but most importantly is positioned within an excellent location. Positioned between two mainline stations, Sidcup and Albany Park (Zone 5) providing excellent transport links in and out of London.
