The Myth, Yewlands, Hoddesdon, EN11 8BU

Located in the sought-after Yewlands, The Myth is an elegant, detached residence built in 1929, approaching 3000 ft² and occupying a generous plot of approximately half an acre. Offered chain free, this substantial 4/5-bedroom period property boasts a sprawling 145-foot, south east facing rear garden that backs directly onto the picturesque New River, offering serene waterside views and a tranquil setting, and features dual gated entrances at the front with ornate wrought iron railings—a sweeping in-and-out driveway plus a separate pedestrian access. Brimming with potential for expansion (subject to planning consent), this home invites transformation while remaining perfectly liveable in its current condition. Step inside to discover an impressive entrance hall, expansive living room, an extensive dining area, and a modern kitchen. The bedrooms impress with their generous proportions. Perfectly positioned, this residence is just a short stroll from the vibrant town centre and Broxbourne railway station, blending convenience with timeless charm.
