Nestled within a private gated courtyard at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac, this impressive seven-bedroom detached bungalow offers remarkable space, versatility, and privacy — ideally located in the centre of Cheshunt, just a short stroll from Cheshunt Station and within easy reach of the A10 and M25.

Originally constructed in 1982 and extended in 2002, the property provides a generous and adaptable layout, with excellent potential to further extend or reconfigure into multiple dwellings (subject to planning permission).

The main residence features seven spacious bedrooms, currently split into a four-bedroom property and a separate three-bedroom complex, a selection of bright and versatile reception areas, and a well-proportioned kitchen/dining space perfect for family living and entertaining. To the rear, the south-facing garden enjoys all-day sunshine and offers a tranquil outdoor retreat.

In addition, the property benefits from a detached one-bedroom annexe, providing self-contained accommodation ideal for guests, relatives, or rental use.

Further highlights include a double garage, secure gated parking for up to six vehicles, and additional on-street parking opposite.
