Turnock House

- * This outstanding four bedroom detached stone residence has undergone an extensive refurbishment program over recent years and now combines the original character of the property with modern day living.
- * The property which dates back to 1831 has potential to provide a self-contained holiday/dependent, relative accommodation or could be utilised as a large family home.
- * Centrally situated in the idyllic village of Butterton within the Peak District and within some of the most glorious countryside yet within easy travelling distance of the market towns of Leek, Ashbourne and Buxton.
- * The property has been extensively upgraded in recent years and the accommodation now offers a number of alternatives and the adaptability to use the property as a family home or alternatively the potential to convert part of the property into a totally self-contained separate unit, which may be of interest to those requiring accommodation for a dependent relative or the potential to form a holiday let.
- * The accommodation briefly comprises: Entrance Porch, Inner Hallway, Sitting Room/Lounge with log burner and original stone feature fireplace, Sitting Room/Dining Room, Kitchen, Breakfast Room/ Utility Room and Cloakroom W.C. to the ground floor. Two staircases allowing access to the first floor accommodation, which provides four double Bedrooms, Bathroom and Shower Room.
- * Outside the driveway provides ample off road parking facilities. Stone built old Dairy/Workshop which could be utilised as a possible home office / Study or studio with water and electricity.
- * Good sized landscaped gardens to front, side and rear including a private courtyard area, well stocked display borders, several fruit bearing trees and shrubs and lawned areas, a fabulous summer house, decking and two useful garden sheds providing storage and workshop.
