Charles Orlebar presents - An established chalet style house occupying a commanding position within the old village of Finedon and presenting light and comfortable living space with views across to the church and beyond. Dating from the early seventies and built to the behest of the original occupier the property presents 3 bedrooms over 2 floors and a basement garage. The current owner has updated the property significantly, to include a new ensuite, modernised bathroom and kitchen, landscaped garden with artificial turf, bifolding doors and a new outbuilding! The property is just a stones throw from local amenities including The bell, one of the oldest pubs in the country, Salvatores italian restaurant and the ever popular Cricket club! Finedon is a small and historic town, filled with beautiful stone walls and charactor, with the bonus of ample amenities, shops and great road links for commuting.
