Charles Orlebar presents - A family home with incredible views across to Chester House and boasting over 1800 square feet, including a huge workshop measuring over 19 feet in length, ideal for car or motorcycle enthusiast, and there is a large garage as well. Located just off the A45 between Rushden Lakes and Wellingborough, and right next to Chester House, this is a home in need of updating internally but perfect for a family who like spending time outdoors. The current owner has a large chicken run in the rear garden, and there is plenty of space for a vegetable patch too. With only one neighbour and a huge frontage, there is plenty of room for off road parking on the generous driveway too. With Rushden Lakes only a few minutes drive away, and Wellingborough train station too, this would be a lovely family home for anyone looking for a rural life style, while needing the convenience of excellent road and rail links.
