

A fantastic opportunity to purchase a three-bedroom semi-detached cottage in an enviable edge of village location with a particularly generous plot, in need of updating with the possibility to extend subject to planning permission.

Offered for sale for the first time in over 65 years a much-loved family home.

Enclosed to the front by a traditional stone wall stretching the length of these attractive cottages that make up The Glebe in Aynho is this three-bedroom semi-detached property.

A pretty picket fence and gate enclose the front garden, with a path leading both to the front door and around the side of the property to the rear.

The entrance hall provides access to the living room, kitchen/breakfast room, and stairs to the first floor.

The living room feels light and spacious with a window to the front and patio doors to the rear garden.

The kitchen is fitted with a good number of units and space for all the usual appliances along with room for a table and chairs.

A useful utility room can be accessed from the kitchen too.

The first floor has two double bedrooms, a single bedroom, and a bathroom.

Outside the property occupies a particularly generous corner plot.

The garden wraps around the property on three sides, mainly laid to lawn it also has a patio area which is perfect for al-fresco dining and BBQ's along with a greenhouse and shed for storage.

Mature trees and attractive shrubs provide colour and a delightful setting for those that like their gardens in this much-loved village cottage.

Aynho is a picturesque village with excellent communication links via Junction 10 of the M40.

It has a thriving village community offering lots of clubs and activities including photography, history and a walking group.

The Cartwright Hotel has been refurbished and also offers good quality food and accommodation.

There is a Village Hall, recreation field and children's playground and many countryside walks can be found on its doorstep.
