The Property

A handsome individual detached house with an excellent design and super central position, convenient to both the town and Bicester station. Believed to date from the 1930's this charming property offers the best of new and old. There is a traditional entrance hall, light bright sitting room with fireplace and a study/family room with the original fireplace. A major feature of the ground floor is the stunning open plan kitchen/dining/living room with excellent kitchen having a good range of built in appliances also with double doors to the rear garden. There is a spacious utility and a cloakroom. All bedrooms are double, there is an ensuite to the main bedroom and a stylish main bathroom. At the front of the property there is an attractive garden as well as ample parking. A driveway runs to the side of the property. The west facing rear gardens have been attractively set out. There is a large outbuilding (bigger than a single garage).
