The Property

A substantial and well presented four bedroom detached house with generous gardens, set in an attractive village. No onward chain. Constructed approximately 30 years ago, this charming property has been thoughtfully updated and makes an excellent family home. There is a large dual aspect sitting room, with double doors to the south west facing garden and a fireplace. Additionally there is a good sized study and a dining room which interconnects to the smartly refitted kitchen. All four bedrooms are well proportioned with an ensuite to the master. To the front there is a pleasant garden and driveway parking which leads to the garage. The rear garden is both well proportioned and south west facing. Viewing highly recommended.
