Quarry Lane

Mansfield

Are you looking for a quaint property with a period feel and stunning lush green views which has been replumbed, rewired and remodelled then look no further than this mid cottage within walking distance of the town centre with the abundance of amenities that has to offer, including train station, retail parks, restaurants, wine bars and many, many more. This delightful fully renovated TWO/THREE BEDROOMED cottage with fully fitted kitchen with some appliances including fridge, freezer, oven, hob and washing machine, dining room with feature inglenook, lounge with stunning views to the front over the River Maun path, two first floor bedrooms, family bathroom, access to the attic room which has a loft ladder, heating, electricity and a window. The property benefits from being sold with NO ONWARD CHAIN. Externally the property boasts parking for three vehicles to the rear with access off a private road, enclosed garden and garden to the front with steps leading to Quarry Lane and the town centre. The location and views at the front are the icing on the cake, so don't delay book a viewing today.

How to find the property

Leave Mansfield via St Peter's Way, then left onto Portland Street and at the traffic lights turn right onto Quarry Lane, continue past Mansfield Town football ground, then on the past the row of cottages as access and parking are to the rear. After passing the cottages turn immediately right onto Highfield Way, then immediately right again onto Sibthorpe Way, then right again into the resident and visitors parking area. In addition to the resident parking area, there is a three space private parking belonging to the property, that is situated directly to the back of the property, which we will make clear to you upon viewing the property. Please note if you are travelling to the property from Sheepbridge Lane end, then the turn for the parking is on the left directly before the cottages.
