Description

A rare opportunity to acquire this detached family home in a highly sought after location overlooking the cricket green.

The property offers bright, spacious, and well-proportioned rooms. Ground floor accommodation comprises a large open sitting room with traditional brick-built fireplace and exposed timbers, dining room with windows to the front, side and back of the property and kitchen with landscape window looking out to the garden.

Rising to the first floor you'll find three bedrooms, a family bathroom, and an additional shower room. Externally the property enjoys a large garage and storage space along with beautifully kept front and rear garden. To summarise, we believe this to be a real opportunity to unlock the potential of this already excellent house and create a wonderful home.
