Offered with no onward chain is this immaculately presented, one-bedroom, first-floor apartment situated within the charming commuter village of West Horndon. Located within a short walking distance of West Horndon railway station, the property benefits from allocated parking and views over stunning nearby fields. The internal accommodation commences a spacious hallway, off of which is the open-plan kitchen/living space with plenty of eye and base level units with contrasting work surfaces and integrated appliances. The master bedroom is a well-proportioned double room drawing light from a window to the rear. The layout is completed by the contemporary bathroom which comprises a modern bath, sink & WC and also boasts underfloor heating. There is a large airing cupboard located off the entrance hallway perfect for additional storage.
