Description

The internal layout begins with a welcoming entrance hall, which provides access to a well-equipped utility room before opening into the striking kitchen and dining area. This impressive space is bathed in natural light cascading from the large mezzanine windows and an overhead ceiling lantern, creating a bright and uplifting ambience. The well-appointed kitchen features a range of stylish eye and base level units, generous worktop space, and an array of high-quality integrated appliances.

The luxurious double bedroom boasts a walk-in dressing room with fitted wardrobes, while a spacious bathroom with a contemporary four-piece suite completes this level. Throughout the property, solid oak doors add a further touch of quality and craftsmanship.

Ascending to the mezzanine, a pair of graceful split staircases lead to a large, beautifully appointed lounge to the right and a versatile second bedroom or office to the left, both overlooking the impressive living space below.

Externally, the property is enveloped by impeccably maintained communal gardens and further benefits from an allocated parking space, enhancing both convenience and peace of mind.
