Description

The accommodation currently includes a hall from which the stairs lead and a ground floor bathroom. There is a good sized sitting room, a kitchen with space for a table and a useful side hall with a store. On the first floor there are three bedrooms. Outside there is very good frontage, an attached double garage (in need of attention), side access and a mature rear garden.

Hungerford

The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined approximately 3 miles to the north and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country (Reading to Taunton line).
