Tanglewood

Salisbury Road, Hungerford, Berkshire, RG17 0LH

Offers in excess of £900,000

A substantial detached family home situated in an established and favoured residential area of the town.

Description

The house sits very nicely within the plot to provide excellent frontage with off road parking for numerous vehicles, together with a fabulous rear garden and the whole plot is approaching ½ acre. The accommodation includes good hall space, a downstairs cloakroom and a separate study. The two main reception rooms both have fireplaces and overlook the garden. The open plan kitchen/dining room provides a very sociable space for entertaining and there is a useful utility room with direct access to the garage and to the garden. On the first floor there is a dual landing giving access to five bedrooms in all. The main bedroom has an en-suite bathroom, distinctive Juliette balconies overlooking the garden and good natural light. The remaining bedrooms are served by a family bathroom and additional shower room. Steps lead to the attic room which has velux windows for natural light. This is ideal as a hobbies room, playroom or home office perhaps.

Hungerford

The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined approximately 3 miles to the north and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country (Reading to Taunton line).
