Hungerford, Berkshire, RG17 0EP

Guide £495,000

An outstanding Grade II listed property that has been considerably improved, with attention to detail throughout creating a very comfortable home within the heart of the town.

Description

The property retains great character throughout and includes two reception rooms that share a central fireplace, a tastefully fitted kitchen and a useful utility room with a cloakroom. The fabulous sitting room/garden room is flooded with natural light and opens directly onto the walled garden. On the first floor there is a generous landing which has ample space for a desk and furniture. There are two double bedrooms with exposed beams and a beautifully fitted bathroom that includes a shower. Outside there is a driveway at the front and a thoughtfully designed walled garden with a sunny aspect at the rear. There is also a fully insulated studio which provides an ideal space for hobbies, work from home etc. A viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate the overall qualities of this unique home.

Hungerford

The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined approximately 3 miles to the north and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country (Reading to Taunton line).
