Railway Mews

Hungerford, Berkshire, RG17 0WH

£395,000 to £595,000

A very distinctive and elegant selection of seven three storey town houses situated in a convenient central location.

Description

Plots 1, 2 and 3 have a brick elevation under a clay tiled roof. Plots 4, 5, 6 and 7 have a brick elevation under a slate tiled roof to create a tasteful variation. Each plot will include a lawned rear garden, general landscaping, patio, block paved driveways and a provision of a spur for an electric car charger. An external tap and lighting are also included.

Hungerford

The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined approximately 3 miles to the north and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country (Reading to Taunton line).

Directions

Layout

Plots 1, 2 and 3. The front door opens into a spacious hallway with a door to a cloakroom and a convenient storage cupboard underneath the staircase. Fabulous open-plan living/kitchen/dining space with patio doors to the garden. On the first floor there are two bedrooms and a full bathroom. On the second floor there is a main bedroom an en-suite shower room.

Plots 4, 5, 6 and 7. The front door opens into a spacious hallway with a door to a cloakroom and a convenient storage cupboard underneath the staircase. Double doors lead to a family/day room with a bay window and in turn to an open plan kitchen/dining room with patio doors to the garden. On the first floor there is a living room, quite common for this style of this house back in the day. There is also a bedroom and en-suite shower room on this floor. On the second floor there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.
