Description

No. 6 is an exceptionally fine house which has a wonderful sense of space and light. The east/west orientation ensures that all rooms get a great amount of light. This, coupled with the generous proportions of the property, make it a very unusual find. Much-loved by the current owner whose children were brought up here in great comfort, it is now ready for its next owners to enjoy.

Entering the house via the front door, you are welcomed into a superb entrance hall. Following straight ahead, this leads through to a charming garden room with great views to the south and west. To your right and up five stairs, you find the spacious inner hall, off which all the principal rooms are set.

To your right is a fantastic kitchen which opens via double wedding doors to a superb family room. The kitchen is fitted with a range of modern white units, a range cooker and a dishwasher. There is a central island with granite worktops.

The family room has large double sash windows and views to the front of the property. There is a central fireplace with gas fire (not tested).

Across the hallway you find the drawing room which has a marvellous wide bay window with views over the gardens and to the west. There is cornicing and an attractive marble fireplace with Regency grate.

At the end of the hall is the superb dining room with white marble fireplace and built-in shelving.

Steps lead down to a back door and a cloakroom. Further stairs lead down to the lower ground floor which is split into a self-contained apartment and an area which remains part of the main house accommodation.

Here you find a great workroom/studio which opens to a workshop area with wine bins and an old stone fireplace. There is also a very handy laundry room.

A lockable door then leads you to a super one-bedroom, self-contained apartment which has its own boiler, independent gas and electricity. The accommodation provides a very generous sitting room, well-fitted kitchen with AGA, cloakroom, bedroom and bathroom. The bedroom leads through to a walk-in store area.

On the first floor, there are three wonderful double bedrooms; two facing the front of the house and one overlooking the rear gardens. There is also a very generous family bathroom with bath and shower.

On the second floor there are three further bedrooms, one ensuite, and there is a separate family bathroom which enjoys a double aspect and wonderful views.

Externally

To the front of the house there is off-street parking for several vehicles, and a pedestrian right of way over next door to access the self-contained apartment. This pathway also leads to the main rear gardens, giving valuable access for removing garden materials. Along this walkway is a doorway through to some handy undercroft storage.

To the rear of the house is a lovely west facing garden with elevated views towards St Stephen's Church. The central lawn is flanked by two well-stocked herbaceous borders. Trees include a highly productive damson, three apple trees and a majestic oak. Set to one side at the end of the garden is a timber shed.
