Chapel-En-Le-Frith

In further detail, the accommodation on offer comprises a lounge extending to over 7 metres in length and with a large window to the front and gas fire in fireplace. Double doors open into the kitchen family room which is laid with wood effect flooring and has a range of newly fitted wall and base units in a sleek modern grey colour with composite white work surfaces above which also forms a breakfast bar. Integrated appliances include an eye level electric oven, electric hob with extractor hood above and dishwasher, all complimented by a tiled splash back. Also off the lounge is a hallway which gives access to the bathroom complete with WC, wash basin and shower cubicle with glass screen and fully tiled walls. Bedroom one is a dual aspect room looking out to the front and side and bedroom two looks over the rear garden. A staircase from the kitchen leads to the first floor where you will find bedroom three with dormer window overlooking the garden and further room which would make a small office but does have electrics for the installation of an electric shower should the buyer wish to create a shower room. Externally there is a garden to the front which is laid to lawn surrounded by flowerbeds. A driveway provides off road parking and access to the garage via up and over door to the front. The garage has power, lighting and plumbing for a washing machine and dryer at the rear. The rear garden has been well maintained and is in three tiers with a paved patio directly from the kitchen family room, steps up to two lawned areas and a further paved area at the top of the garden which also provides space for a greenhouse and there is a stone built out building which makes an ideal garden store or workshop.

LOCATION

Chapel-en-le-Frith, known as 'The Capital of the Peak' nestles in an upland valley in the High Peak and is surrounded by dramatic landscape of gritstone ridges and shapely hills. The town takes its name from a small chapel built in 1225 by the keepers of the Royal Forest that is now the Church of St Thomas Becket, where 1,500 Scottish soldiers were imprisoned during the Civil War. The historic town center also features a traditional marketplace which still has its original renowned stocks which the local cafe takes its name. A common phrase you here many resident say is "We are so lucky to live here" even after living in the town for decades. That is further, solid evidence, if ever it was needed that Chapel-en-le-Frith and its surrounding town and villages is an excellent place to set up home.
