In a little more detail, the accommodation on offer comprises an entrance porch with tiled flooring opening into the lounge. The lounge has a solid wood floor, storage cupboards, double glazed window to the front and log burning stove in fireplace. The kitchen has a range of high quality Shaker style wall and base units with solid oak worktops over, natural stone splash backs and inset ceramic sink. There is also larder unit providing plenty of storage, space for white goods and a tiled floor. The tiled flooring continues through bi-folding doors into the sitting/dining room which has a large double glazed window to the front and access door to the side.

The first floor originally had three bedrooms but has been altered to create an spacious master bedroom spanning the width of the house with exposed brick chimney and storage cupboard. The second bedroom is also a double bedroom and looks out to the rear of the house. The bathroom is equipped with a high quality three piece suite comprising WC, wash basin and double walk in shower with shower boarding. Externally there is a garden to the front which is mainly laid to lawn. It has potential to create off road parking but permission should be sought from the local planning authority. The rear garden is enclosed by timber fencing and has a paved patio seating area leading to lawned garden and shale area for pot plants.

LOCATION

Chapel-en-le-Frith, known as 'The Capital of the Peak' nestles in an upland valley in the High Peak and is surrounded by dramatic landscape of gritstone ridges and shapely hills. The town takes its name from a small chapel built in 1225 by the keepers of the Royal Forest that is now the Church of St Thomas Becket, where 1,500 Scottish soldiers were imprisoned during the Civil War. The historic town centre also features a traditional marketplace which still has its original renowned stocks which the local cafe takes its name. A common phrase you here many resident say is "We are so lucky to live here" even after living in the town for decades. That is further, solid evidence, if ever it was needed that Chapel-en-le-Frith and its surrounding towns and villages are an excellent place to set up home.
