Chapel-En-Le-Frith

In a little more detail, the accommodation on offer comprises an entrance hallway with staircase leading to the first floor, lounge with double glazed window to the front and fireplace, a kitchen with a range of fitted wall and base units with solid wood worktops over and breakfast bar, these are complimented by tiled splash backs and wood effect flooring. Bedroom one is on the ground floor and looks out to the rear and the family bathroom includes a three piece suite with WC, wash basin with vanity unit and double shower cubicle with glass screen. The first floor houses the landing, bedroom two looking out to the front with two double glazed windows and bedroom three with skylight window to the rear.

Externally there is a garden to the front mainly laid to lawn flanked by flowerbeds and with pathway leading to the front door. The rear of the property has a low maintenance garden with paved area and access to the attached garage with up and over door to the front.

LOCATION

Chapel-en-le-Frith, known as 'The Capital of the Peak' nestles in an upland valley in the High Peak and is surrounded by dramatic landscape of gritstone ridges and shapely hills. The town takes its name from a small chapel built in 1225 by the keepers of the Royal Forest that is now the Church of St Thomas Becket, where 1,500 Scottish soldiers were imprisoned during the Civil War. The historic town centre also features a traditional marketplace which still has its original renowned stocks which the local cafe takes its name. A common phrase you here many resident say is "We are so lucky to live here" even after living in the town for decades. That is further, solid evidence, if ever it was needed that Chapel-en-le-Frith and its surrounding towns and villages are an excellent place to set up home.
