DESCRIPTION

In a little more detail, the property is entered into the porch which has the downstairs cloakroom off with a WC and wash basin. The lounge has a feature fireplace, staircase leading to the first floor with useful storage cupboard beneath and is open into the dining area which has double glazed doors opening into the rear garden. The kitchen has a range of white, fitted wall and base units with contrasting black worktops over, there is space for white goods, integrated oven and hob with extractor above and tiled splashbacks and flooring.

The first floor houses bedroom one which looks out to the rear up to Peaslows and has fitted bedroom furniture. Both bedroom two and three look out to the front and all are served by the family bathroom complete with WC, wash basin and shower cubicle with glass enclosure, all complimented by tiled walls. Externally there is off road parking to the front on the driveway for numerous cars and a pathway leads down the side to the gated rear garden. The rear garden has stone paved patio seating area and lawned area all enclosed by timber fencing.

LOCATION

Chapel-en-le-Frith, known as 'The Capital of the Peak' nestles in an upland valley in the High Peak and is surrounded by dramatic landscape of gritstone ridges and shapely hills. The town takes its name from a small chapel built in 1225 by the keepers of the Royal Forest that is now the Church of St Thomas Becket, where 1,500 Scottish soldiers were imprisoned during the Civil War. The historic town centre also features a traditional marketplace which still has its original renowned stocks which the local cafe takes its name. A common phrase you here many resident say is "We are so lucky to live here" even after living in the town for decades. That is further, solid evidence, if ever it was needed that Chapel-en-le-Frith and its surrounding towns and villages are an excellent place to set up home.
