In a little more detail, the accommodation on offer comprises an entrance porch leading into the hallway which has the staircase leading to the first floor. The family room is a beautiful space with double doors opening to the rear, log burning stove and opening into the kitchen which has a range of fitted wall and base units with granite worktops over, tiled splashbacks, extractor fan and space for white goods. Off the kitchen is a useful rear porch/utility room with plumbing and power and steps down into the home office/hobby room. The sitting room is a lovely cosy room which also has double doors opening onto the rear patio and a feature fireplace. Bedroom one has a double glazed bay window to the front fitted storage cupboard and ensuite shower comprising WC, wash basin and shower cubicle with glass enclosure and tiled splashbacks. Bedroom two has a double glazed bay window to the front and under stairs storage/snug area. The first floor houses a landing with storage space, bedroom three, which has eaves storage, fitted wardrobe and a dormer window overlooking the rear garden and up to Eccles Pike. Externally there is a garden to the front with lawn and flowerbeds, a paved pathway to the front door which leads around the side of the house to the rear porch. The side and rear gardens are enclosed by hedging providing privacy and are mainly laid to lawn with various paved seating areas including a sunken patio. There is a driveway at the end of the garden which leads to the detached garage accessed via up and over door to the front. The rear garden is a generous size and could potentially be used as a separate building plot subject to any relevant planning permissions and approvals.

LOCATION

Chapel-en-le-Frith, known as 'The Capital of the Peak' nestles in an upland valley in the High Peak and is surrounded by dramatic landscape of gritstone ridges and shapely hills. The town takes its name from a small chapel built in 1225 by the keepers of the Royal Forest that is now the Church of St Thomas Becket, where 1,500 Scottish soldiers were imprisoned during the Civil War. The historic town centre also features a traditional marketplace which still has its original renowned stocks which the local cafe takes its name. A common phrase you here many resident say is "We are so lucky to live here" even after living in the town for decades. That is further, solid evidence, if ever it was needed that Chapel-en-le-Frith and its surrounding towns and villages are an excellent place to set up home.
