4 BOWDEN LANE

Chapel-En-Le-Frith

In a little more detail, the accommodation on offer comprises an entrance hallway with staircase leading to the first floor and one down to the kitchen diner. The lounge has an open fire, double glazed window to the front and door opening into the conservatory which overlooks the rear garden. There is also a doorway through to the dining room which has an open fireplace and dual aspect with double glazed window to the front and rear. The kitchen dining room has a range of fitted wall and base units in a light wood effect with contrasting black worktops over, an integrated oven and hob, fridge freezer and space for dishwasher. Off the kitchen is a utility room with side access door and plumbing for washing machine. The first floor houses the landing, bedroom three with double glazed window to the front, family bathroom complete with WC, wash basin, bath with tiled splash backs and storage cupboard. Bedroom two has a double glazed window to the rear, fitted wardrobes and access to the Jack and Jill shower room comprising WC, washbasin and shower cubicle with glass enclosure. The shower room also serves bedroom one which has double glazed windows to the front and rear. Externally there is off road parking to the rear along with garden with raised flowerbeds. The garden continues around the side of the house to the front with flowerbeds and various seating areas.

LOCATION

Chapel-en-le-Frith, known as 'The Capital of the Peak' nestles in an upland valley in the High Peak and is surrounded by dramatic landscape of gritstone ridges and shapely hills. The town takes its name from a small chapel built in 1225 by the keepers of the Royal Forest that is now the Church of St Thomas Becket, where 1,500 Scottish soldiers were imprisoned during the Civil War. The historic town centre also features a traditional marketplace which still has its original renowned stocks which the local cafe takes its name. A common phrase you here many resident say is "We are so lucky to live here" even after living in the town for decades. That is further, solid evidence, if ever it was needed that Chapel-en-le-Frith and its surrounding towns and villages are an excellent place to set up home.
