A well presented, stone built semi detached home with off road parking in a central location. The traditional property has an open plan kitchen living room to the ground floor giving it a modern living twist. There are two bedrooms to the first floor accompanied by a contemporary bathroom suite. The allocated parking space provides an excellent benefit for a Market Street property and the home also boasts double glazing throughout and gas central heating. Located only a short walk from the town centre and Market Place, the property is convenient for many of the local amenities including local shops, supermarkets and cafes to name a few.

In a little more detail, the accommodation is entered into the living room which has double glazed windows to the front and side allowing plenty of natural light into the space. The kitchen area has a range of fitted wall and base units in white with black worktops over, inset sink and drainer and integrated oven and hob. Stairs lead to the first floor landing which provides access to all first floor rooms. Bedroom one looks out to the front over the street and bedroom two looks out to the side. The family bathroom comprises WC, wash basin and bath with shower over, glass screen and tiled splashbacks. The bathroom also houses the boiler and plumbing for a washing machine.

There parking space is directly to the side of the house and there is a pathway leading around the rear.

LOCATION

Chapel-en-le-Frith, known as 'The Capital of the Peak' nestles in an upland valley in the High Peak and is surrounded by dramatic landscape of gritstone ridges and shapely hills. The town takes its name from a small chapel built in 1225 by the keepers of the Royal Forest that is now the Church of St Thomas Becket, where 1,500 Scottish soldiers were imprisoned during the Civil War. The historic town center also features a traditional marketplace which still has its original renowned stocks which the local cafe takes its name. A common phrase you here many resident say is "We are so lucky to live here" even after living in the town for decades. That is further, solid evidence, if ever it was needed that Chapel-en-le-Frith and its surrounding town and villages is an excellent place to set up home.
