The Property

A generously proportioned, non-estate, three bedroom semidetached house, originally a farm property, enjoying a lovely village setting with open views over pastureland to the rear.

Dating from the 1970s, the property features a large sitting room with open fireplace, an open plan kitchen and dining area, separate utility room and ground floor cloakroom. Offered for sale with vacant possession, this newly decorated property has the advantage of oil central heating and double glazed replacement windows. An early inspection is recommended.

Material information

Mains electricity water and drainage. Mains Gas is available in Aston Tirrold but is not connected to this property. The garage is approached via a private road to the rear of the property, additional parking is available at an annual "peppercorn rent". Ofcom checker indicates standard to ultrafast broadband is available at this postcode. Ofcom checker indicates some restricted mobile reception availability with certain providers. The government portal generally highlights this as an unlikely/very low risk postcode for flooding. Details of any covenants or easements are available on request from the estate agent.
