The Property

A unique contemporary house built in the barn style, set in grounds of just under half an acre in a wonderful location in the heart of this pretty village.

Completed in 2019 by bespoke developers, Fenton homes, Stowe House is one of just three properties built in the former grounds of Upton Manor. The property boasts over 3000 square-foot of accommodation overall, including a 9.5 metre (31 ft) family kitchen with both bifold and French doors opening to an impressive fullwidth patio. A generous hall, utility room and cloakroom complete the ground floor whilst the first floor consists of five bedrooms, of which the three principal rooms have ensuites.

The overall specification is impressive and including a stylish kitchen complete with sit up island, a full range of integrated appliances and granite works surfaces. The kitchen is divided from the snug by way of a two way central wood burner, adding further to the open plan atmosphere of this part of the house. The hall features an oak and glass staircase which compliments the internal doors and timber strip flooring. Bathrooms and ensuite are equally impressive as is the outside space. To find a garden of this size in such an idyllic setting in a 21st century build is rare indeed.
