The Property

A unique slice of Didcot's heritage dating back to the 17th Century and having previously been a Church room, a Grade 2 listed thatched cottage located in the heart of Old Didcot offering over 1000sqft of internal living space.

With a south facing sunny garden and offering a wealth of period charm including exposed beams, an inglenook fireplace and lead lined windows, the property is situated set back from Lydalls Road in a setting of just two thatched cottages.

The ground floor accommodation offers two accesses to the property via a boot room and also the kitchen/dining room off the garden. The accommodation comprises of a kitchen/dining room with stone flooring, bathroom and a sizeable family sitting room with log burner. To the first floor are two large double bedrooms with vaulted ceilings and with fitted wardrobes to one.

Other benefits include a single garage, which is accessed via a private road to the rear of the cottages, as well as an enclosed and private rear garden with a seating area and timber-built workshop with power.
