The Property

A well appointed and end of chain detached family home located within the popular Ladygrove development. Situated on a quiet cul-de-sac of just detached homes, this well presented four bedroom house comes to the market for the first time in just over two decades.

The ground floor comprises of entrance hall, study, kitchen/breakfast room, sitting room and UPVC conservatory leading on to the rear garden. On the first floor are four well proportioned bedrooms all accessible off of the main landing and with the principal bedroom having an en-suite shower room, as well as a family bathroom.

To the front of the property is a block paved driveway for at least three vehicles side by side with a gated side gate leading to the rear garden. To the rear of the property is well maintained and landscaped garden with shrub lined borders, lawn, patio and raised decked seating area.

Tenure: Freehold. The property is of a brick build construction and is connected to mains gas, electric, water and drainage. According to Ofcom, there is up to ultrafast broadband available at the property (checker.ofcom.org.uk). According to Ofcom there is good coverage on a range of phone providers (checker.ofcom.org.uk). According to GOV.UK flood risk, the property has a low flood risk.. Properties built or renovated pre-1999 may contain asbestos in certain building materials e.g. Artex, vinyl tiles, sheet boards and corrugated roofing, pipework and lagging/insulation. These are generally considered safe unless disturbed but prospective buyers must take their own advice. We have not carried out a survey but please note that the property has Artex ceilings. For any further information relating to 'The Register of Title' including restrictive covenants then please contact the estate agent.
