3 Woodland Road

Selsey, Chichester

Located to the south of Selsey on a quiet and desirable road that's within 110m of the seafront as the crow flies is this charming detached house, offered for sale with no forward chain.

Stepping through the front door into the entrance hallway, which is adorned with parquet flooring, access to the principle rooms can be found. These include the kitchen which has space for a table, dining room, cloakroom and the living room - which also benefits from parquet flooring. There is also a south facing conservatory that adjoins the living room that is 22ft in length. On the first floor, the four double bedrooms can be found. Three of the bedrooms have access to the 22ft long south facing balcony that benefits from sea views. There is also a bathroom on this floor.

Externally, the property benefits from covered off road parking for one car, additional off road parking and a garage. The garden wraps around the whole house which ensures that sunshine is enjoyed throughout every stage of the day. Various flower beds are present too along with sections of gravel, patio and turfed lawn.
