26 Beacon Drive

Selsey, Chichester

Immersed in a tranquil coastal setting, this direct sea facing residence offers an unparalleled opportunity to reside within a coastal locale. With panoramic sea views that span the horizon, this exceptional property boasts a position that ensures uninterrupted vistas from all front-facing rooms.

Modern elegance and spacious design merge seamlessly in this meticulously renovated home. The interior exudes a sense of light-filled tranquillity, offering an expansive and versatile layout across multiple levels. Showcasing a full renovation completed over the past four years, the residence radiates a pristine charm and exudes show home standards throughout.

A rich array of living spaces awaits within, including welcoming living and dining rooms that provide a sense of warmth and intimacy. The addition of an orangery infuses natural light and offers a serene spot for relaxation or entertainment. The refitted kitchen breakfast room is a culinary haven, complemented by a separate utility room for added convenience.

Retreat to the main bedroom suite, a sanctuary of comfort, complete with an en-suite bathroom and dressing room. Added convenience is found in the provision of an additional family bathroom and two cloakrooms ensuring ample comfort for all residents and guests across all floors of the home.
