Set in the village of Manea, this detached farmhouse offers spacious family living across two floors. The ground floor features an open-plan kitchen, dining and family room, with a log burner that flows into a separate lounge that also has another log burner. The downstairs also benefits from a garden room and a handy utility. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms, a family bathroom and an additional shower room. Outside, a large garden and ample off-road parking accompany pleasant field views, making this a charming rural home.
