Viewing is essential to appreciate the spacious accommodation of this stone and bay fronted, five bedroom, two bathroom semi-detached property located in the delightful area of Crookes. This early 20th-century property boasts a perfect blend of character including high ceilings and skirting boards, coving, ornate ceilings and original doors with modern living, making it an ideal home for families or those looking for extra space. The property benefits from a detached garage and a lovely rear garden, as well as being located in this sought after area with the convenience of local amenities, schools and parks right at your doorstep. In brief, the living accommodation comprises front door which opens into the entrance hall with a downstairs WC, which houses the modern gas boiler. There is a side entrance door and access to the cellar which offers excellent storage. Access into the lounge, sitting room and the kitchen. The lounge to the front has a bay window along with the original fireplace with a cast iron open fire. The sitting room has a lovely curved bay window along with a cast iron stove with a stone hearth. The extended kitchen has a range of wall, base and drawer units with a complementary work surface which incorporates the sink, drainer and the five ring hob with extractor above. Integrated appliances include a double electric oven, dishwasher, washing machine and housing for a fridge freezer. The kitchen flows into the dining room with Velux windows and uPVC French doors which open onto the rear. From the entrance hall, a staircase rises to the first floor landing with access into three bedrooms and the bathroom. Bedrooms one and two are good size doubles, bedroom one has a feature fireplace while bedroom two has fitted storage. The spacious bathroom comes with a three piece suite including bath, WC and wash basin. A further staircase rises to the second floor and two further double bedrooms and a shower room with WC and wash basin.
