Saxton Mee

Edale Road

Offers Over

£365,000

A charming two-bedroom, stone-built end-terrace cottage graces a generous garden in the peaceful village of Hope, a sought-after location in Derbyshire. This delightful home, surrounded by the stunning Peak District countryside, offers a wealth of outdoor activities just outside the door and is conveniently close to local shops, amenities, and rail links, making it an easy commute to major commercial centres.

Brimming with character, the cottage has been sympathetically renovated to a high standard by its current owners. The traditional double-glazed sash windows lend an air of elegance, while the entrance porch welcomes you into a cozy sitting room. This inviting space features an attractive fireplace housing a multi-fuel stove and a column radiator, leading seamlessly into the bespoke fitted kitchen. The kitchen exudes charm with its exposed beams, column radiator and electric underfloor heating, Belfast sink set in a quartz work surface, and a range of units complemented by integrated Neff appliances.

On the first floor, the landing leads to a spacious double bedroom and a bathroom adorned with exposed stonework, alongside a second double bedroom.

From the master bedroom, a staircase ascends to the second floor, unveiling a study area/dressing room with built in storage and hanging space. This space, enhanced by an exposed beam, a Velux window, built-in storage, and additional eaves storage, is perfect for a tranquil retreat.

The property is approached via a pathway leading to an enclosed courtyard with a store. This path continues to a stone outbuilding with electricity and water, and workshop, continuing to the enclosed garden. The pretty garden, features planted beds and a seating terrace, complete with a timber store and a summer house also with electricity, offering a perfect blend of practicality and picturesque charm.
