Great Hucklow

Offers In The Region Of

£1,200,000

Foundry Adventure Centre, situated in the charming village of Great Hucklow within the Peak District National Park, offers a remarkable opportunity for group accommodation amidst stunning natural surroundings. The centre provides flexible lodging options, accommodating either 31 or 52 guests in comfortable bunkroom-style quarters, with additional camping space for up to 30 people.

Central to the national park, the location is ideal for exploring many of the area's attractions, making it a perfect retreat for a diverse range of groups, including families, friends, schools, educational institutions, activity clubs, and corporate teams. The primary goal of Foundry Adventure Centre is to offer good, basic bunkhouse accommodation where guests can unwind and enjoy their stay, with the entire centre booked exclusively for each group.

The accommodation features a spacious lounge with a library, a wood-burning stove, a TV, and Wi-Fi, providing a cozy and relaxing environment. The fully equipped kitchen is designed for group catering, boasting two large fridges, a chest freezer, ten electric hobs, two large ovens, and steel catering surfaces. The dining area is well-appointed to serve and seat up to 60 guests comfortably.

The centre includes ample bathroom facilities with four male and four female showers in two bathrooms, each with private lockable cubicles. An additional bathroom offers two showers, two sinks, and a toilet.

The first floor houses nine bunkrooms with a total of 52 beds, ensuring plenty of space for large groups.

Situated on two acres of enclosed land, the property features grassy areas, trees, and ample car parking. Foundry Adventure Centre is an exceptional facility that combines the charm of its rural setting with practical and comfortable accommodations, making it an ideal base for various group activities and adventures in the Peak District.
