A Delightful Character Cottage In A Highly Sought After Derbyshire Village.

Castleton Village epitomizes quintessential Peak District charm, offering narrow winding streets, picturesque stone cottages, and traditional country inns. Nestled beneath the dramatic backdrop of Peveril Castle and Mam Tor, the village centre offers many independent shops and cafes. With a wealth of local walks through Cave Dale and the surrounding Derbyshire countryside, outdoor pursuits and the impressive caves. Ideally located for Manchester, Sheffield and the many pretty adjoining villages.

This charming 300 year old three bedroom stone cottage offers a blend of traditional character and modern comfort. Well presented the flexible living accommodation brimming with original features boasts a welcoming dining/living room with exposed beams and a gritstone fireplace housing a log burning stove. A fitted kitchen with a range of units and appliances has an adjoining store. Additionally, a second reception room with doors leading to the rear garden provides versatility for use as a study or cozy retreat.

Landing with exposed beams, three bedrooms and a bathroom.

Exterior: a pretty gated front courtyard. To the rear of the property is a garden laid to lawn and a timber storage shed.
