A Unique Opportunity in the Heart of Calver

This exceptional 17th Century cottage offers a rare chance to acquire a home that retains its historic charm while benefitting from a complete ground-up renovation to the highest specification. Original features such as stone fireplaces, exposed beams and flagstone flooring have been sensitively preserved, while every element of the installation, plumbing and electrics has been renewed to modern standards of comfort and efficiency. The result is a property of true character, blending timeless period detail with the quality expected of a contemporary home.

Laneside Cottage occupies a peaceful setting in the sought-after Peak District village of Calver. Surrounded by dramatic landscapes including nearby Curbar Edge, it is ideally placed for those who enjoy walking, cycling, climbing and exploring the beauty of the National Park. The village itself offers a welcoming community with local shops, cafés and amenities, while the market town of Bakewell is just a short distance away.

Inside, the accommodation includes a dual-aspect living room with stone fireplace, log-burning stove, restored beams and flagstone flooring, flowing through to a triple-aspect dining kitchen with solid worktops, integrated appliances and an original stone fireplace. A utility room and downstairs WC complete the ground floor.

Upstairs, the master bedroom includes a walk-in shower and Jack and Jill WC, while the second bedroom is enhanced by a freestanding bath.

Externally, the property is complemented by beautifully landscaped gardens to the front and side, private off-street parking and far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside.

Offered with no upward chain, this unique home combines period charm, high specification and an enviable location, making it an ideal main residence or weekend retreat in the very heart of the Peak District.
