Offers In The Region Of

£640,000

This remarkable stone-built bungalow, part of an exclusive new development, exudes charm and modern sophistication. Located in the heart of the picturesque village of Ashover, the property sits in a prime position within a small, peaceful cul-de-sac, backing onto open countryside. Its sought-after setting offers a perfect blend of rural tranquility with convenient access to nearby towns such as Matlock, Bakewell, and Chesterfield. The village itself boasts a strong community spirit, hosting local events throughout the year, and features a variety of shops and traditional country inns.

The bungalow itself is a spacious three-bedroom residence, designed with an emphasis on light-filled, airy spaces. It has been constructed to an exceptionally high standard, ensuring the property is move-in ready. A welcoming entrance hallway leads to the open-plan living kitchen, which is equipped with a stylish range of units and modern appliances, as well as a dining area. Patio doors open directly onto a rear seating terrace, perfect for outdoor relaxation.

The layout of the home also includes a luxurious double bedroom with an en-suite shower room, another generous double bedroom, a family bathroom, and a third versatile room that can serve as a snug or additional bedroom. Externally, the bungalow features a private driveway offering off-road parking and easily maintained gardens, further enhancing its appeal.

With no upward chain and immediate availability, this home offers both comfort and style, with the potential for the new owners to add personal touches to its already exquisite finish.
