Three-Bedroom Semi-Detached Home with Elevated Views over Matlock.

£225,000 - £250,000 Guide Price

Occupying an elevated position above the historic town of Matlock, this three bedroom semi detached property offers comfortable living with the convenience of an easily managed garden. With no upward chain, it provides an excellent opportunity for families, professionals, or investors seeking a home in a desirable location.

The property opens into an entrance hall, leading through to a dining room, which seamlessly connects to the adjoining sitting room.

At first floor, the landing leads to two double bedrooms, a bathroom and a further bedroom.

The property benefits from an enclosed and easily maintained garden, perfect for those seeking outdoor space without extensive upkeep. The elevated setting provides charming views over Matlock, with a sense of privacy and tranquility.

Matlock is a picturesque market town known for its rich history, beautiful architecture, and access to the stunning Peak District National Park. The town centre offers an array of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and essential amenities, all within easy reach of the property. Excellent transport links provide connectivity to nearby towns and cities, making it a convenient location for commuters. Bordering the Derwent Valley, the area is renowned for its outstanding natural beauty, with scenic walking trails, cycling routes and outdoor pursuits available in the surrounding countryside.

Attractions such as Heights of Abraham, Matlock Bath, and Chatsworth House are just a short drive away, offering a mix of cultural and leisure activities.

Families will benefit from the property's location within the catchment for well-regarded schools, including Highfields School, a highly-rated secondary school, and several excellent primary schools in the area.
