Saxton Mee

Chesterfield Road

Asking Price

£200,000

This charming semi detached cottage, built from traditional stone, offers a warm and inviting home in the sought after village of Two Dales. With its picturesque setting close to local amenities and an abundance of scenic walks, it also provides convenient access to the excellent shops and leisure facilities of nearby Bakewell and Matlock, along with the surrounding villages.

Retaining period character, the property features a cosy sitting room centred around a welcoming log-burning stove, creating a perfect space for relaxation. The fitted kitchen is well-appointed, leading to a rear entrance lobby and a ground floor shower room.

Upstairs, the cottage offers two well proportioned double bedrooms, each providing a comfortable retreat.

To the rear, an easily managed courtyard adds a private outdoor space, complemented by a useful garden store, making it an ideal home for those seeking both charm and practicality in a beautiful village setting.
