Edmund Cottage 1 Yew Tree Holloway

Guide Price

£515,000

Set in the heart of the highly sought-after village of Holloway, this beautifully renovated three-bedroom stone-built semi-detached home offers refined living in a picturesque & historically rich location. Holloway, best known as the former home of Florence Nightingale, enjoys a peaceful countryside setting with strong community spirit & a fascinating heritage. The village offers a range of local amenities including a shop, post office, primary school & easy access to scenic walks throughout the stunning Derbyshire countryside.

£515,000 - £525,000 Guide Price.

Neighbouring villages such as Lea, Crich, Wirksworth & Cromford contribute to the area's creative & cultural appeal, with independent shops, galleries & a thriving arts scene.

The property itself has been skilfully & thoughtfully renovated to an exceptional standard. The light-filled interior is immaculately presented, beginning with a dual aspect sitting room featuring exposed beams, a column radiator & a gritstone fireplace housing a multi-fuel stove. A spacious, triple-aspect open-plan living kitchen provides a perfect space for entertaining, complete with bespoke hand-painted Shaker-style units, an Aga with ceramic hob, integrated appliances, stone mullioned windows with shutters & a utility area. Double doors open to the rear garden.

Upstairs, the landing leads to a dual aspect principal bedroom with a luxurious en-suite bathroom including a free-standing bath, twin basins & a walk-in shower. Two further bedrooms, one with exposed beams & an additional shower room.

Outside, a beautifully enclosed walled garden offers a tranquil retreat with mature borders, planted beds & a seating terrace overlooking open fields.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a high-end, thoughtfully restored character home in one of Derbyshire's most charming and well-connected village settings.

Offered with no upward chain.
