£275,000 - £285,000 Guide Price

Often referred to as the “Cathedral of the Peak” thanks to its impressive 14th-century church, Tideswell is a thriving and welcoming village surrounded by stunning countryside. It boasts a good selection of local amenities including shops, café, pubs and restaurants, along with excellent walking, cycling and outdoor activities right on the doorstep. Its central Peak District location makes it a perfect base for exploring the nearby market towns of Bakewell and Buxton, as well as the many scenic trails and historic sites in the area.

Stepping inside, you are greeted by a warm and welcoming living/dining room with exposed beams, a solid wooden floor, a charming window seat and a feature fireplace housing a cosy log-burning stove – the perfect spot to unwind after a day exploring the Peak District. The well-equipped kitchen features a range of fitted units, integrated appliances, and tasteful finishes, with a rear door leading to the outside space.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to two double bedrooms, each full of character and a stylish bathroom.

To the rear, steps lead up to a raised seating terrace, private space ideal for al fresco dining, morning coffee, or evening relaxation.

This property perfectly blends charm, comfort and location, whether as a holiday home, investment, or your own permanent Peak District retreat.
