67 Bristol Road, Keynsham, Bristol, BS31 2WA

A beautiful five-bedroom Victorian home that offers the perfect blend of period elegance and modern comfort, with an abundance of charming features including, original fireplaces, high ceilings, ornate cornicing and sash windows to name a few.

On entering a grand reception hallway welcomes you into a space filled with character and leads to two elegant reception rooms. The first features a bay window and a gas flame-effect fireplace, while the second offers an open fireplace, ideal for cosy evenings. The highlight of the ground floor is the expansive Kitchen/Dining/Family Room, complete with a bespoke handcrafted Tom Howley kitchen, bifolding doors, rooflights, and underfloor heating. A separate utility room adds further convenience and is complemented by a further reception room and a shower room that can be re-arranged to provide Annexe accommodation if required.

Upstairs, the spacious landing leads to five generous bedrooms, all of which enjoy delightful views of either the rear garden or nearby open countryside. The internal accommodation is completed by a luxurious family bathroom that boasts a freestanding roll-top bath and walk-in shower.

Outside, a landscaped front garden with a sweeping block-paved driveway provides ample parking, while the expansive southerly facing rear garden features a sunny, tiered lawn and a patio ideal for entertaining.

Located on the market town of Keynsham, in close proximity to a bustling High Street with many independent retailers as well as Waitrose supermarket and several well regarded schools. The home is ideally situated within the town to benefit from open countryside within a stones throw and excellent transport links in the cities of Bristol and Bath, in addition to London via Keynsham mainline railway station.
