VENDOR SUITED. This attractive double bay fronted detached bungalow originally dates from the 1930s and is built in Bath stone beneath a tile clad pitched roof. It has a double glazed conservatory attached to one side and stands on an enviable corner plot at the corner of Horsecombe Brow and Bradford Road immediately adjacent to local shops, amenities and public transport links.

Internally, the accommodation is well arranged around a central hallway enjoying the traditional versatility of a bungalow which is presently arranged as two bay fronted reception rooms, conservatory and kitchen/breakfast room.
