Description

Entering the property from the communal reception area you find yourself in a spacious entrance hall where there is plenty of storage provided via a double built-in cupboard and further single built-in cupboard. There is a spacious, open plan living/dining/kitchen area which has French doors opening onto your own private terrace/garden. The kitchen has been fitted in sleek, dark wall and base units providing ample storage and high spec, integrated 'Bosch' appliances are included.

The property benefits from two, double bedrooms both with fitted furniture and both have views over the private garden/terrace. The master bedroom has access to its own, fully tiled en-suite shower room with double shower, wash hand basin and close coupled w.c, and there is a further main bathroom which features a panelled bath with shower over and a wash hand basin and w.c. set into a modern unit.

As previously mentioned, accessible from the lounge you have your own private outside space, a spacious enclosed terrace/garden which runs the width of the apartment, measuring around 41' in width. The terrace has been laid to artificial lawn and has plenty of space for outdoor furniture, providing a lovely quiet spot to sit and enjoy your morning coffee or a glass of wine in the evening. This apartment comes with an allocated parking space with the potential to purchase another allocated parking space directly from the Developers, and there is additional parking for visitors.
